COME AND SING

To mark its 100th anniversary, Wimbledon Choral commissioned Cecilia McDowall to write the 'Da Vinci Requiem', which had its world premiere at the Royal Festival Hall (2019) and which is now available as a recording (2023) from Signum Records.

We are so pleased with the commission that we'd love to share it with you in the form of a day's workshop, hosted by Wimbledon Choral, directed by Neil Ferris, accompanied by Michael Higgins and with special guest, Cecilia McDowall.

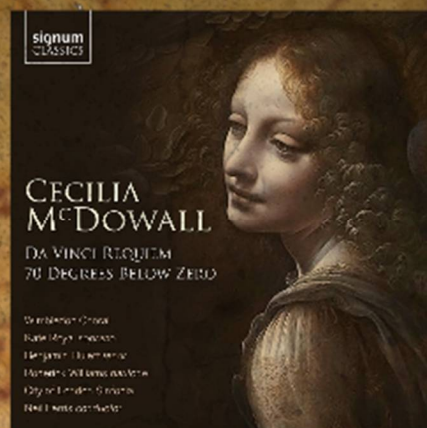

At the end of the event, there will be a performance of the work by all participants with guest soloists to complete the picture. Friends and family will be very welcome to come along to listen to this for free. There will be a retiring collection for a nominated charity for those who would like to donate.
