An evening of passion and drama with Wimbledon Choral and the City of London Sinfonia as the beat of the South American tango lights up the classical tradition of European sacred music.

Palmeri's hugely popular Misatango, or Misa a Buenos Aires, is a setting of the Catholic Mass in the style of Nuevo Tango, scored for mezzo-soprano, mixed choir, bandoneon, piano and strings.

Ginastera's Lamentaciones de Jeremías Profeta is an unaccompanied choral work in three movements filled with emotion and drama, based on extracts from the Old Testament's Book of Lamentations.

Piazzolla's dramatic Estaciones Porteñas ("Four Seasons of Buenos Aires") for bandoneon quintet is rearranged with spectacular success for solo violin and string orchestra by Leonid Desyatnikov to incorporate familiar passages from Vivaldi's Four Seasons.
