Dear Friend of Wimbledon Choral

Many thanks to all who came to hear Wimbledon Choral (led by Daniel Mahoney & accompanied by Michael Higgins) perform Haydn's "Nelson Mass" & "Centuries of Meditations" by Dobrinka Tabakova alongside "Sea Sketches" by Grace Williams, performed by the City of London Sinfonia. Please would you provide feedback about the Concert? This helps WCS learn what you, our loyal supporters, think; it also helps plan future concerts. Opinions can be public (attributed or anonymous as you prefer) or remain private; the choice is yours. PLEASE let us know your thoughts by emailing me, or telling family & friends for onward transmission. Thank you.

How next shall we entertain you? On Saturday May 10, at St Mark's Church Wimbledon (between the library & the Alexandra) there is a day of singing - SingFest 2025. Merton does not have a Concert Hall so WCS has no home base. Some years ago WCS, in conjunction with MMF, started SingFest as a form of community outreach. Every year, Merton Choirs of all ages and sizes gather to share what they love – singing. This year there are 17 Choirs. More would have participated but for lack of time!

WCS leads off at 1000 hours. Please come & listen to us, to Wimbledon Oldies, to choirs of children & young people. It is a wonderful FREE day: eclectic music; great choirs; refreshments. Drop in whenever you please. Stay for as long, or as short, as you would like. Have fun & enjoy.

Our next CONCERT is on June 14, 7:00pm, in the Auditorium at Wimbledon High School. If you would like to hear the Choir perform "Mass of the Children" by Sir John Rutter & "Living Voices" by Russell Hepplewhite, best to book early via <https://www.wimbledon-choral.org.uk>. Details of the concert are on the website and you can follow links to obtain tickets. WCS is singing with a Choir from Wimbledon High so tickets will sell quickly. If you are attending, please would you let me know you have tickets as soon as possible? Seat reservations will need organizing well in advance. Many thanks.

Kindest Regards

Colleen Spalding
